"Can the artwork count on your little brick?" and

"Did you know that recently there is a special exhibition in the Netherlands that invites young and old to be amazed and have their imagination roused? It's called Bricks of Wonder1. In a large area, more than 150 works of art can be admired, built from over two million LEGO® bricks. From a ceiling painting made of 200,000 bricks to lifelike portraits and meticulously crafted scenes; each work tells its own story."
